My dear Mr. Muir - Arthur and I were deeply pained this afternoon to learn of the sorrow that has fallen on you - You have been much in our minds and hearts since we heard of your sister's illness, and we have so wished that this sad parting might be spared you - Indeed I know what the sorrow of parting is even though we would not hold the dear one here in the bondage of pain. - Mother will write by my form. So Angeles - and I know she would wish to join with me now in sending you -

Love and deep sympathy - Faithfully yours,

Manian Hooker.
