STANWORTH
PRINCETON, N.J.

Dear Mr. Muir: There were contributed during the past year by its members for the expenses of the Academy of Arts and Letters five hundred and sixty five dollars. The outlay was as follows: Printing ^{$26.00} Badges ^{$30}, Wreaths ^{$36}, Public Meeting ^{$26.35} Clerical Service and Postage ^{$66.69} Total ^{$427.10} The balance therefore is ^{$137.90}

The Treasurer was instructed by unanimous vote of the Academy to bring these facts to the attention of its members and a second time to receive such subscriptions as should be sent to him. He respectfully asks that if there be a reply it be sent within the coming month.

Very sincerely yours
Prof. W. M. Sloane.
