Wesa Major
July 3.

My dear Mr. Minn

Your letter

telling me of the death of your dear sister
arrived just after
I left to come down
here.

I have not written you, but I have often thought of 04826

you and of your
nurses - happiness
that she was released from pain and
weariness, but sadness
at the parting before
the morning door.

I am about to go back to San Francisco and when you feel like going over there
to see us, send me

a line. It is long since you have been with us.

Very affectionately
Katharine Hooker
