My dear Badi:

That was a stunning editorial enclosed in yours of 22nd. Read it to Parsons & Mrs. Forbes at lunch to day & they agreed with me that it was mighty effective - directly to the point & will do a world of good.

I feel guilty in not writing to you sooner but I simply could not get time with the Outing on my hands. I have been trying to carry two men's work & as a consequence have been forced to eliminate temporarily many things I should have done. I know you will appreciate & pardon my silence.

We will settle the amount owing you for persons etc in the Health Helthy hearing as soon as you return & I hope the delay will not inconvenience you.

Mr Farland writes - that he has looked Pinchot & the latter shows signs of weakening & seems to report having written to answer the letter of encouragement.
Will secure copy of letter & send you Monday so you will be sure to have it.

Just returned from a most glorious & successful Centing this morning & mail is piled deep on my desk. Have many things to discuss with you & am looking forward to your return.

Sincerely
Colby
