Dear Mr Muir-

wife and I would like very much if you could run down, and come to our house, and go with us to the Hales' reception, to meet the members of "The International Union of Co-operation in Polar Research", to be held at their house here in Pasadena, on (Aug) 29th inst at 4 to 6 Pm ~~at~~ a week from tomorrow, Monday. Then spend as much time with us as you can afford.

I enclose Van Trump's letter + Postal card which you left here. I forwarded a letter, addressed to you here, from Edinburgh, in the hand writing of Mrs Logan, Mrs Sellers' sister.

The ladies all join in kind regards to you and in hopes that you will come + go with us, to the reception - no dress coat required.

Yours sincerely
A H Sellers
