Dear Mrs Osborn,

To join you at lovely Lake McDonald would be according to my own heart. I spent a charming week there ~~and~~ at Avalanche Lake some fifteen years ago. But the illness ~~and~~ death of my sister Margaret, ~~and~~ many tasks ~~and~~ duties that have gathered about me will prevent ~~my~~ joining you in your Montana outing ~~and~~ also I fear will block the way to the Hudson this fall, a visit to which I have been looking eagerly forward. It will go hard indeed with me however if I fail to be with [you] next summer or fall, after the Hetch Hetchy question is decided

With warmest regards

Faithfully your friend

John Muir
