Darling Helen.

I'm delighted you are feeling so well. I had hoped to have got your grammums slips off today in a box Tom was to send but he has gone to the city.

Tom's fight with the bank will I fear do far more harm than good & I'm sorry you sent him the help you did before hearing from
me. All well
Remember me to Buck
& the rest

Ever your devoted father
