Dear Dr. Bade:-

On my return yesterday after three months in Germany I found your letter of July 28 together with proofs of your excellent editorials, and a clipping from an Oakland paper. Please accept my thanks for all this, and for the admirable work you have done in this Hatch Hetchy fight.

It looks as if McCarthy had crawled, and as if the case was now in a fair way to be properly adjusted. We must all stand by with our eyes wide open I suspect, however, lest some crafty game be tried.

Had a grand summer. My first time in Germany.

Sincerely yours,

Allen Chamberlain
