Dear Colby:-

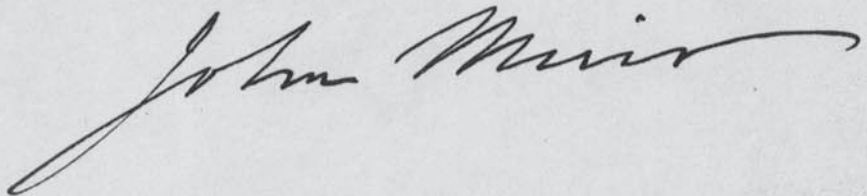

Why don't you drop me a line telling me how Keith is getting along, as you agreed to do? Of course I am trying to believe no news is good news; still, I would like to hear every day or two, however briefly.

I wish you would send a copy of the Bulletin containing my sketch of Galen Clark to Colonel A. H. Sellers, 320 West California Street, Pasadena.

I hope to see you in a week or two. Am hard at work.

With all good luck wishes, I am,

Faithfully yours,
