pleased with your thought of me that he telephoned to me
as soon as he reached the office. The same afternoon we went off on a trip for two days and had such fun planning
what we should
try. - First of all
we are to get your books and maybe
when you come to

Dear Mr. Morris

I'm sure I don't know how to tell you
how much pleasure
I have already had
and am going to have in the more than generous gift
you sent me through Bill. It was ex-

see me you will write in them. Then we are to buy a rug for the new home. This will help to give you a feeling of "at home"
 here and we hope that you will come and enjoy it with us. We have a spare room
 and you will always be welcome.

Please remember me to Helen. I trust she is improving very day.

Bill and I both send our heartiest thanks to you and were appreciative of your wanting to give us something that I can express but sincerely
