

1910-01-01

Letter from Myra Crow Marshall to John Muir, [ca. 1910 ?].

Myra Crow Marshall

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Marshall, Myra Crow, "Letter from Myra Crow Marshall to John Muir, [ca. 1910 ?]." (1910). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 5218.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/5218>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

(4) which could never be obliterated. I feel much richer having read them. They appeal to me much in the same way
as your little story "Stikine".

Mr. Marshall and I often wish that there was some more "lobbying" for you to do, or at least that something would transpire to bring you back to us again —
for such treats come to us
but seldom.

Always —

Myra Crow Marshall

Sunday.

C13 83 / W. St. Sacramento

My dear Mr. Muir —

After two months
of illness, I am writing
to thank you for that last charming book
on La Salle which I have only partly read as yet, owing to trouble
with my eyes added
to my other ailments.

To be deprived of health is bad enough, but to be deprived of reading is unbearable.

04923

enjoy are,—"From a (3) Mattress Grave"—

"The Peoples Favourite"—
and, "The Waker of Senses".

My sister's little baby-girl is now a fortnight old. She wished me to express her appreciation of the little book you sent her, which she will thank you for as soon as she is able.

I don't wonder that you love Dr. Brown.

Rab and Marjory Fleming are both adorable and leave a mental impression

(2) I am convalescing rapidly however, this past week and trust my Nemesis has fled.

I cannot tell you how much I have enjoyed the Parkman books and my "Muir Collection" is a most valued one.

I am sending you by today's post one of Jung-will's books which I enjoyed, and believe you will.

The sketches you ^{will} particularly