

1908-01-27

Letter from Theodore Roosevelt to John Muir, 1908 Jan 27.

Theodore Roosevelt

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Roosevelt, Theodore, "Letter from Theodore Roosevelt to John Muir, 1908 Jan 27." (1908). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 5255.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/5255>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 27, 1908.

My dear Mr. Muir:

Your letter was a surprise of the pleasantest kind. I thank you for it, my dear sir, with all my heart. There is nothing I value more than praise from you and I am deeply touched ~~with~~ and friendly words, by your kindness. You may rest assured that I shall try to continue to deserve what you say. I am concerned over your daughter's health and I trust she will be speedily better.

Again very heartily thanking you, believe me,

Ever yours,

Theodore Roosevelt

Mr. John Muir,
Martinez, California.

P. S. I always grudged Emerson's not having gone into camp with you. You would have made him perfectly comfortable and he ought to have had the experience.

04046