Dear Mr Colby:

I find that the slight introduction to the H. H. article wouldn't do. So I'm trying to remodel & strengthen the whole - beginning, middle & end just as I feared that exacting Scotch conscience of mine would compel me to do. So I'm pezzing away at the endless job - hoping to be able to mail it tomorrow or next day.
It will probably be 3 or 400 words longer than the original sketch, but some of the whiting part may be left out. I'll send to you at Berkeley so that you may criticize it & suggest changes as in my wrath I may say too much.
Ever yours
John Muir
