Dear Papa -

I am enclosing a letter from Mr. Calkins which I received two days ago. I haven't answered it yet as I want to talk to you first. When are you coming home? If not for a week or two yet, send the Calkins letter back to me.

I don't care to keep Miss Brodt any longer, for I really don't need her. Her pass will expire on the 22^d or before so you had better get her another.

We are all right here and everything is cheerful. The wind is blowing today but it isn't cold and we are getting very little sand here. Yesterday and the day before were warm and lovely.

How are the folks up home, is the baby well yet?

Sincerely yours

Helen
