Martinez, Feb. 18, 1908

Dear Mr Calkins,

I'm glad Mrs Calkins is making good speed to perfect health. I saw Helen for a day on my way to the old home after leaving Pasadena. She is cheerful & hopeful & seems to be gathering strength. I mean to see her again as soon as I get rid of a miserable influenza cold that has been stupefying me lately.

Ever since I got home I've been trying to arrange business affairs between Helen & Wanda so as to relieve <sup>me</sup> of the care of Helen's vineyards & orchard. & I hope to succeed in my plan. Then we may be able to do something in literature. In the meantime I'll keep you informed & hope for the best. Ever faithfully Yours John Muir
