Dear Papa -

This is another fine day and we are all well and happy. I looked for a letter from you or Nanda yesterday but got nothing, so I decided that you were probably talking over house trades and would let me know as soon as anything was decided.

Paul Eldon & Co. sent you a copy of your Parks. from Boston, a few days ago. What do you want done with it. Shall I buy it till you come down here again.

You'll see by the enclosed slips that my Club dues should be paid. Am sending them to you as I thought you would probably see Mr. Colby, and so save me bothering with an order. I must get this in the mail now. So good-bye for today.

Loveingly yours
Helmer
