Darling Helen.

I was glad to get your cherry all-well letter of the 17th & 18th. The warm days must be gone for you but look out for sudden night chills. Tom came from Berkeley last eve with report that Wanda is all right & means to visit you in a week or so.

I went to S. F. Saturday. paid Colby your Club dues. met McHugh on the boat. He enquired very kindly for you & told me to thank you for a photograph you had sent.

I'm doing pretty well camping in the old home the lovely working on stickiness Ever your devoted Father
John Moring
