Darling Helen.

I was very glad to get your merry cheery letter of the 21st yesterday - my birth day 70. Venerable Old Child (of Nature). This morning I sent you a fine box of flowers enough for you all. You ought to get it by Tommorrow No 8. Wanda's visit soon says will be made in about a month though she is quite comfortable & doing well every way. I'm pegging away here in my den practicing my old skill in cooking as well as scribbling

Wis my den could be transported to the desert beside you, all my homes should have wings, so it seems should yours of late Years so often have we take flight Ever your lover
J.M.
