325 W. ADAMS STREET

LOS ANGELES

April 23.

My dear Mr. Smith

Two letters
have come for you
and I consulted

J. D. (not Koppel) as to whether they had better be forwarded to the agent or Martinez,

and he says decidedly
the latter. I was going to send them

to Daggitt, but I will

10003

a mere woman, so I yield.

I hope
you had a comfortable
journey and that Miss Helen reached
the end of it without too great fatigue.

Things are much
the same in this house as when you left it, excepting that there is a
large hole in it,
that one John Smith

did fill. No one else fits into it
and so it remains
empty.

Our affectionate
remembrances and hopes that you will come back
very long.

Katharine Hooker.
