Homer, Apr 28, 1908

Darling Helen,

Wanda is to leave the hospital today, & stay a week or so with Miss Dr Reddington, then home. Your Aunt Maggie has been quite miserable for a week or two but is getting better.

Here is a long merry wedding bell letter from Charlott Hoffmann.

Wh of course will interest you & all old & young maids - Take eternal care

& some day you will see Italy villas, etc etc but now darling & Min also your devoted Father will be your best love.
