Darling Helen; The seeds are at last signed, & I hope will be found correct. Wind still intends trying to get of on Saturday's No 8.

The weather has been unsettled for a week or so - showers & sprinkles & wind. Today we had quite a shower, hard on your hay crop wh Long cut yesterday. Never mind the Home. Someone will buy it or I will myself - any how we have had one good year of enjoyment out of it which is pretty fortunate in this "vale of tears". & son-in-law. & it will always be more & more beautiful while we own it. Lasalle paid back the amount of that bill - all except the last small item. Let me know when you want more money. Don't talk business of any sort with Wanda or J. but rest rest & grow strong both of you. With all love
J.M.
