

1908-05-22

Letter from Wanda [Muir Hanna] to [John Muir], [1908 ?] May 22.

Wanda Muir Hanna

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Hanna, Wanda Muir, "Letter from Wanda [Muir Hanna] to [John Muir], [1908 ?] May 22." (1908). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 5426.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/5426>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Daggett, Cal. May 22

Dear Papa,

The terrific wind that has been blowing for several days has stopped and today is calm and hot. - Calm and warm Helen calls it. Helen is well, and cheerful as usual.

I am gradually gaining strength and am beginning to feel quite like myself again. I took a short horseback ride last night and today Helen and I are going for a drive.

Mr Van Dyke went "inside" yesterday. He keeps asking when you are coming down here and seems very anxious to have you come back. Or hat a fine old man he is. We were over there day before yesterday and he showed us a great many of his lovely pictures.

I am glad that Helen is boarding with the Funks for they are fine people too despite their name, and Mrs Funk gives her ~~fine~~ things to eat and takes good care of her in every way.

Little Jennett is my devoted friend and a constant shadow. 04197

Helen's flowers are all growing and she waters them carefully every evening but they seem very tiny compared to the ones we have at home. Its too bad that her yard cant be moved down here if she has to stay in this scorching climate

Helen is ready to take one driving so I will have to stop

Loveingly
Wanda