Darling Helen.

I'm so glad you are enjoying bright vivid life as your letters show, the badful cough gone & side pains going, soon I fondly hope bodily weakness of every sort will take wing & vanish in the healing desert sunshine & wind.
Anyhow looking bravely on the best side of everything, radiating loving sympathy & good nature whenever you go is the surest way to happiness & good luck both in this world & the next

I'm sorry Wanda can't be with you only another week or two, but her visit to her Pasadena friends will also do her good, & she will return all the stronger to the love of home.
& perhaps find it easier to repeat her visits as health & work & duty may require & allow. Maggie is quite well again & Hal's boy is growing fast. all in general
