Daguerre, Cal. June 2-

Dear Papa -

I was so glad to have your good letter telling about my garden a few days ago. Maude and I have been so busy taking little trips and enjoying ourselves these last days of her visit that I haven't done much letter writing. Maude has improved wonderfully. She starts for Los Angeles and Pasadena tomorrow afternoon and expects to be home in about a week.

Mary is going to San Bernardino for a visit with Alice Manson today. I don't know how long she'll stay. Dick is in Los Angeles for two weeks. The Funks are well and busy. Sam feeling fine and as happy as ever, and dog, horse and cat are well and lively.

Today is windy but warm so far all night. When do you expect to come down here?

Sincerely Helen
