My dear Mr. Tunit-

Judge Harrett
and his wife are gone and we are all alone - I am glad on Fay's account as she sadly needs the rest. She has not been at all well of late, is extremely nervous - She and I were talking about you last night and not having heard from you, she fears you are sick, but I tell her that you are probably very busy writing.
Wouldn't you at least drop us a line telling us how you are?

The photos that were taken of you all have turned out very well, and now that we ~~are~~ have more time will print some and send to you soon -

How is Helen getting on?
Weather here has been very cool, in fact the nights have been almost too cool for cornfords.

Please let us hear from you

Truincerely
A. S. Sellen
