Dear Papa -

Your cherry home letter almost made me see the old hill and its granicums, and I enjoyed it so. Things must look beautiful and its so dear of you to keep them that way. Can you send me some jessamine - good long sprays of six inches ~~or~~ a foot. If you could get some oiled paper to wrap them in, such as florists use, they would keep well, & Im so fond of jessamine.

The weather here is perfect - good and warm, and Im feeling fine - no pains at all. All goes well on the ranch. Mary and Dick are still away but coming soon!

We're all waiting for "Stephen" to get out of the way so you'd be coming back to the desert. I look for another letter today.

Always yours
Steven
