Darling Helen. I sent you today by express the jasmine you wanted. I forgot this was Saturday & that you might not get it out of the office until Monday. But being packed in time I think they will be fresh if not I'll send more though the flowers are past prime & falling fast making a sort of snowbank along the walk. By the way the correct spelling of the name is as above, not "jasmine" - leave two of the letters out as indicated. It belongs to the same natural order as the Olive
Am so glad all pain's gone
Will be happy yet ever
