Darling Helen; I'm glad you are enjoying the jasmine. I don't know who sent the cherries but guess it was Tom, for he told me Monday he had sent you a box. I have not seen him lately to find out. The whole family seems to have gone off again.

I think Stickken will take all the month. Though he goes on well now & I even enjoy rewriting the dear Muggins. Had a letter from David Douglas yesterday. He always sends kind inquiries & some regard for you. Prof Balfour wants more Arizona pet wood. Those sent before are very interesting he says. Lovingly Your Father John M. M.
