Daygett, Aug. 31 -

Dear Papa -

I got your telegram yesterday evening and answered it soon after it came. But by now you surely must have my letter in answer to the first one you sent from Pheasant Lodge. This afternoon your second letter came, saying you would stay till the Hannimans left. It will do you good, and I'm so glad you can be with such good friends.

Don't worry about me - I'm well as ever, gaining in weight and strength, and am contented and cheerful. I'm delighted to find that I can enjoy little short walks in the cool of the evening, and not feel tired - that encourages me a great deal, for a while ago I couldn't walk at all.

The weather is perfect - warm and sunny but not hotter than 95° or 100°, with calm beautiful nights. No more rain. All wish to be kindly remembered.

Truly yours
John
