Daggett, Sept. 14th

Dear Papa

The fine Golding box reached me safely yesterday and everything is in fine shape. The three pineapples are the best ever - I had some for my breakfast this morning. The baby says her candy is "awful good" and Mary is phased with this. I wish I didn't need to send any list.

Mary expects to leave us about the end of the week to go to her Uncle in Oregon. I wrote to Tom asking him if he could put her on the night train at the week, if she should stop off at Meru. Her father is worried because he must go down, and knows nothing about changing cars, so wants her to go from here on the stop off at Meru and have some one see her safely aboard the Oregon train. I thought Tom could do it. I haven't heard from him yet.

Buel left for Long Beach last night as he heard that by going back now he would be able to graduate next June.

The weather keeps fine. Come down and help enjoy it. Let me know when you are coming so I can meet you.

Sincerely yours
Helen
