Darling Helen,

Tom brought glowing accounts of your good health & good looks, corroborating all your own bright letters. I was just starting for the train for a ^{promised} visit to Mr Kent & so did see Mary Van Dyke, for which I am sorry for I wanted to get the chance to show how deeply I felt the debt of gratitude we owe to her father. Tom took her to the train Saturday Sunday evening & she should reach Grants Pass this afternoon.

I had a charming time with the Kents, visited the Muir Woods & Muir Tavern & adjacent region. I got home last eve. & now for work. I'm sending deed for your signature. Return it soon as you can. There are three others to be made out soon, & quite a lot of other confounded business to hold me here, but always I'm yours when you need me. Remember me to the Van Dykes & Funks.
Ever loving, John Muir
