Dear Prof. Muir:

I have the honor to acknowledge and to accept, with gratitude, the duty, which your favor of the 6th inst., through Prof. Fay imposes upon me, of determining the character of the functions of the Club, in recognition of the presence in this country of Capt. Umberto Cagni, commanding H. I. M. S. "Napole." I shall avail myself of the power to choose coadjutors, reporting that and the subsequent action of the committee to you and to the Club. Trusting that you may, in person, tender our welcome and congratulations to our distinguished guest, I am,

Yours very truly,

H. L. Bridgman
