Darling Helen.

I hope you are enjoying your grapes & fine weather. Don't forget my warning about taking cold. Always keep rather too warm than risk being caught out in wind without sufficient clothing. The place is looking neat as ever. Quite a lot of flowers still in bloom.
Kurt & O Callahan were up yesterday. & of course inquired for you. All well. Have a stenograph typewriter from the city who is copying for me.

Kindest regards to V & L & all love to the
John Muir
