The Daggett Ranch Co.

DAGGETT, SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

Daggett, California, November 15 1908

Dear Papa -

I received your two last letters inclosing clippings to cheer me up, and enjoyed them all. I am steadily gaining and keep comfortable and happy. I don't so I never feel any chill. The weather has been wonderful for November. I am glad you have found someone to typewrite for you. I suppose you both board at Nanda's part of the time.

If you can get us two more boxes of grapes we'd be glad to have them. The two Van Dykes enjoyed their boxful you sent last and seemed pleased at mention of another one. Remember they are 85 cents apiece.

All the good people of the ranch want me to remember them to you.

Sincerely always

Helen

How are the chrysanthemums in my yard - are there any yellow ones worth sending?
