Dear Papa -

The Goldbug box of good things came yesterday. The baby got much excited when told who it was from, for she thought of candy right away. I gave the third box of candy to Mrs. Funk which pleased her. Everything is fine, the pineapples extra good. The book will give me lots of pleasure, I always enjoy reading old Plutarch. Thank you.

The weather is glorious here, more so far from summer weather in November. Of course I am well and happy. Have everything to make me comfortable.

All the friends of the ranch send their kindest regards to you. Always yours lovingly Helen
