darling Helen,

I'm glad you are enjoying such fine weather & health as your letters tell.
& that the Goldberg box was all right & the Valona deed returned. Last week was all fog & rain & mud, but the last two days lovely with frosty mornings. Grapes all gone. Dave has been here two weeks or more helping Will - has returned to Pacific grove. All pretty well. over 30 bxs of Quinces sold from your few trees. Am paying taxes today. Wish I could be with you for the winter. But its hard to look after things here & at Valona, & at at same time get my heap of notes & M.S.S. in order.
Kindest regards to all, & to the Father's love, John Muir
