Dear Mr Bryant:

I am very sorry that a miserable lowland bronchial cold or Grippe will prevent me
from being with you at the annual meeting
I could not go at all
I would gladly go as far as to see a new town much more to meet the able ^{Bellevue} witnesses
of the Alpin Club

please assure ^{our} the Board of Directors that I sincerely appreciate the kindness confidence & honor bestowed upon me.

Ever faithfully,
J.M.

[Rough draft of letter]

Martinez, Cal., Dec. 23, 1908.

Dear Mr. Bryant:

I am very sorry that a miserable lowland bronchial cold or grippe will prevent me from being with you at the annual meeting. Cost not in the way at all. I would gladly go farther to see a new tree, much more to meet the able fellow mountaineers of the Alpine Club.

Please assure our Board of Directors that I sincerely appreciate the kindness, confidence, and honor bestowed upon me.

Ever faithfully yours,

J.M.
