

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1908-12-24

Letter from Helen [Muir] to [John Muir], [1908 ?] Dec 24.

Helen Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, Helen, "Letter from Helen [Muir] to [John Muir], [1908 ?] Dec 24." (1908). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 5612.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/5612>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

013
Daggett, Dec. 24th

Dear Papa -

My walk didn't hurt me any, this I was rather out of breath when I reached the station, so don't all right and you needn't worry. The Agent wanted me to write and tell you how sorry he was about the mistake in M.'s time. The operator got things mixed up, that's all. It was the Sact Lake's overland that was five hours late, instead of M.'s. Dad laughed when he saw you riding. He was just coming home from town but said you didn't see him. Maybe he thinks by laughing at you riding in haste he can "get even" about his "Tower of Babel." But all well that ends well. What awful weather you are having! Are you sure it didn't hurt you to get home in that cold rain? It's glorious here, bright

04352

023

04352

033
and sparkling.
Burl and I had a nice ride to Danston Tuesday, and I sent off those papers. It was a grand event day, and it was a nice little trip.

Here is a silk handkerchief Mrs. Funk wants me to send you with her best wishes. And all wish you a Happy Christmas.

Lovingly yours
 Helen

04352