Daguerre, Cal. Dec. 31- 1918

Dear Papa -

Your letter enclosing funny clippings was received, also the circular letter on Vetch Hetchy came safely. I am almost afraid to tackle the job of writing a letter myself, but will try and see what I can do. Mr Van Dyke has been busy, but I think will write a short letter of protest for you.

All goes well here, we happy as ever, the weather beautiful. Nothing can beat the desert after all. Take good care of yourself.
Always lovingly
Helene
