Martinez, Jan. 1, 1909.

Dear Mr. Anderson;

I'm delighted to hear from you, & I heartily thank you & Robert for your kind greetings & wishes for the new year. With all my heart I wish you the same.

Come & make me a visit & bring Robert. I'm alone in the big house. You have doubtless gathered lots of health & Dante on your travels in Italy. What terrible news fills the papers from that beautiful fire-land!

Your Hitch Hiking protest is capital. Try to get Prof. Rolfe to write one like it.

Hoping to see you ere long
I am faithfully Yours
John Muir
