

1909-01-16

Letter from Sarah [Muir Galloway] to [John Muir], 1909 Jan 16.

Sarah Muir Galloway

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Galloway, Sarah Muir, "Letter from Sarah [Muir Galloway] to [John Muir], 1909 Jan 16." (1909). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 5661.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/5661>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Pacific Grove, Calif.
Jan. 16 - 1909

Dear brother John -

Yesterday your package with letters and photo. was received, and I thank you for the privilege of seeing the good picture of our Cousin and of reading Maggie's letter. It is a fine garden picture, she looks so pleased and and comfortable with her knitting and there are so many pretty things growing about her, then she has her Maggie to take care of her. Maggie I think must be about the same age as Joanna. My last letter to them was written last Dec.

David takes the Scottish American and so <sup>we</sup> had seen by that paper of the building on Knock-in-hair, but did not know of its being so "terribly ugly;" I remember well the bill its self.

I have just one other correspondent in Scotland and that is Mrs McDougald, David's sister, who has had her home in Edinburgh all of her married life. She must be 85 or 86 years old now. Mrs Foster a younger sister will be 83 I think within her 84th year, and so the years pass and leave their marks affectionately
Sarah.

04407

"I had a letter from Helen some days ago; she feels well and happy and feels satisfied that she is steadily 'growing younger'."