Feb. 20, 1909.

John Muir, Esq.;

Dear Mr. Muir:

We are just in receipt of your letter of the 12th inst., and are gratified to know that you will see what you can do about bringing "Our National Parks" up to date. As our plan is to bring the book out early in the fall, we hope that it will be feasible for you to give us the copy with your changes and additions by the 1st of May or thereabouts.

You have our heartiest wishes for your success in defeating the Hetch-Hetchy scheme.

Yours very truly,

Houghton Mifflin Company
