Dear Papa -

Mr Van Dyke is going up town so I'll write you just a note to let you know the no noise. My throat got very sore last night but Mrs F. doctored me up with peppermint tea and warm flannel, and I put on some stuff to thicken my neck, so feel a little better today - am staying in bed as it is windy out now, for I promise I'll let you know if I should get any worse.
Just as soon as the weather gets warmer I'll be all right again.

Don't starve yourself up there in that lonely house.

Love
Lovingly, Helen
