Old Home, Apr. 27, 1909

Dear Mrs Hooker,

I have your kind letter & two forwarded letters. Helen stayed only a day at Pasadena, & arrived at her darling desert happy & hopeful & not the least tired.

I start for Yosemite with J. B. & Co on the 29th & will report to you.

The old home seems lonelier than ever. How glad I am you like ^{me} & wish me back!

My love to Mr Hooker, most pious of mortals, notwithstanding the Bague faces & phrases he makes

Ever, faithfully Yours

John Muir
