Martinez, May 12, 1909.

Dear Mr Calkins,

After being five weeks in Hospital at Los Angeles with typhoid fever Helen is again at her desert home Daggett happy & hopeful & about as well as ever.

I had a good time showing John Burroughs the Petrified Forest, Grand Canon, & Yosemite. He is now in Honolulu for a short stay. Of course only bewildering impressions can be got on such hasty racing trips.

Many thanks for the kind things you say about little Stickney & Helen. & with sincere regards to Mrs Calkins & your son I am
Faithfully Yours
John Muir
