Martinez, June 29, 1909

Dear Mr Johnson:

I'll try to see Mr
Ballinger as you suggest.

I leave for Yosemite with the Club July 2. I hope to have a good useful outing.

We have a number of good photographers & will take pains to get a big lot of the very best views of the Tolueme basin. How I wish You could be with us

The trip would not cost You any money & might save Your life. New York

weather is not for You these hot days. Remember me to all Your family & the Gilders. Ever faithfully Yours

John Muir
