Tuesday Aug. 31. [1909]

Dear Mrs Hooker & Marion

Come again next Sunday & get some more peaches & rest & brown scenery, & brighten my Alhambra loneliness.
The peaches are in the ice-box & they will be just right when you arrive & will all be lost if you don't come. & they are the precious last. There are grapes too, now & figs. & I want your advice about a new book: Say You'll come & I'll meet you at the Ferry & conduct you in triumph.
Ever faithfully & affectionately
John Muir
