Dear Brother John:-

It is a long time since I have heard from you. I suppose you are still as busy as ever with many things and have little time to spare.

In a letter David wrote to Etta he said that you were going to visit Helen. I have not heard from her for a long time and am wondering if she is keeping well, and still enjoying her home in the desert. She has been there so long she will have many friends about the place.

I hope you are keeping well yourself.

I had a newspaper from Maggie Lunane lately showing what a place of resort Dumbarton is now. The visitors list is a long one. I must write to them soon.

You will have heard that Kenneth is attending school at Los Angeles, the Polytechnic that is near to Mr Guidinger's place, he is with them and Aunt Maggie Foster. We miss him here.

I saw an article in a San Jose paper telling of the fine time the Sierra Club had in their outing this year and your name was with the others who enjoyed the trip. The writer of the article was one of the party. Miss Lassar & Bethell.

I am reading a book just now written by Henry Van Dyke and am enjoying it so much. It is "Out of doors in the Holy Land". Another I have enjoyed, "The Desert," by John R. Van Dyke. There are fine descriptions in both, which show some of the wonders and beauties to be found in both countries. We get some good things in the Library here, your books are there too.

We are all usually well here. We have just had our first rain, enough to start the grass I think.

Affectionately
Lassar
