WALTER H. PAGE, EDITOR

October 14, 1909.

My dear Mr. Muir:

I observe that you are continuing your pleasant occupation of conducting Presidents of the United States through the Yosemite Valley. I hope that at such intervals from this labor as you manage to get, you are making ^{head} way with your autobiography, for which we and all the world are waiting eagerly. I hope, too, that Mr. Taft came away with the feeling that San Francisco must not be allowed to turn any part of the beautiful valley into a water tank.

With my very kindest greetings,

Sincerely yours,

Walter H. Page

John Muir, Esq.,
Martinez, California.
