Darling Helen

Here is a letter from Mrs Bailey. Very good I think. I met Miss-Fish, the old lady, who told me she would have sent you one of her famous marriage Cakes had she known the date etc.

The weather has been rainy & lots of grapes lost. Several frosts too.

I'm pegging away feeling fairly well. Bertha & the twins are wonderfully well & good looking. Hope so are the Mohave twins are the same. Love to you
John Muir
